

The American Dental Association Annual Session is participating in the U.S. Department of Commerce's International Buyer Program. The U.S. Department of Commerce will help you identify and meet reputable U.S. companies and interested suppliers at the 2009 Annual Session in Honolulu, Hawaii September 30–October 4, 2009.

The following services will be extended to International Buyer Program attendees:

- Access to the International Trade Center with U.S. Commercial Service staff offering expert assistance
- Import/Export Counseling
- Free Export Interest Directory listing U.S. exhibitors and the products that they are interested in exporting
- Matchmaking Services and Market Analysis
- Complimentary Telephone, Fax, Translators and Conference Rooms to facilitate communications and meetings with prospective sales representatives and business partners

Attendees who register for the 2009 ADA Annual Session in Honolulu through the U.S. Department of Commerce International Buyer Program will be entered into a special raffle for a variety of exciting Hawaii activity packages. To qualify for this raffle, you must register by using the following link:

<http://registration.experient-inc.com/showden091/Default.aspx?link=AFFILIATE> and enter the U.S. Department of Commerce registration code: USDOCHNL. Raffle prizes are courtesy of the Hawaii Convention Center & destination partners.

Contact your local U.S. Department of Commerce Commercial Specialist for additional information about the 2009 ADA Annual Session in Honolulu, Hawaii and join a delegation today! Find the Commercial Service office nearest you at:

http://www.buyusa.gov/home/worldwide_us.html.

