

The Journal of the American Dental Association JADA Copyright Transfer Agreement

Tentative title (hereinafter, “the Manuscript”): _____
 Author(s): _____

The American Dental Association (“ADA”) requires all authors of material contributed to The Journal of the American Dental Association (“The Journal” or “JADA”) to transfer copyright ownership of the contributed material to the ADA, the owner and publisher of The Journal. If the contributed material is jointly authored, all authors are co-owners of the copyright, and each author must execute a written JADA Copyright Transfer Agreement.

In consideration of the Publisher’s reviewing, editing and accepting the material for publication and other good and valuable consideration, the undersigned author(s) (hereinafter, jointly and singly the “Author”) hereby assigns to the Publisher, during the full term of copyright and any extensions or renewals of that term, all copyright in and to the Manuscript, including but not limited to the right to publish, republish, transmit, sell, distribute and to otherwise use the Manuscript and the material contained therein in electronic and print editions of The Journal and in derivative works throughout the world, in all languages and in all media of expression now known or later developed, and to license or permit others to do so. You understand and agree that Publisher may publish and distribute the Manuscript under its own name and any other imprints or trade name, and that Publisher may copyright it in the Publisher’s name or any other name.

The Author warrants that the Manuscript is original (except for material in the public domain or as to which permission has been obtained from the copyright owner), that the Manuscript does not contain any libelous or otherwise unlawful material or infringe any copyright or otherwise infringe any personal or proprietary right of any person or entity.

The Author understands and agrees that the Publisher and editor will have the right to make changes in the Manuscript (including its title) for clarity, brevity and conformity to style.

The Author reserves the right to utilize at no cost the Manuscript for scholarly or educational purposes, provided that: (i) such usage is solely for noncommercial purposes, (ii) proper acknowledgment is given to the source and (iii) the Publisher has been notified in writing of said intent.

If the Author has received funding from the National Institutes of Health (“NIH”), to comply with NIH policy, the Author must deposit with PubMed Central a digital copy of the Manuscript that has been accepted for publication by JADA, but only so long as the Author directs NIH to delay publication in PubMed Central for 12 months following the official date of publication in JADA.

In the event that the Publisher decides not to publish the Manuscript, the Author will be notified that it has not been accepted for publication, this Agreement shall be null and void, and all rights hereunder will revert to the Author.

The Author confirms his or her acceptance of the terms of this assignment by signing below and returning this Agreement to the Publisher. No manuscript will be processed until the Publisher has received a signed JADA Copyright Transfer Agreement from each individual Author of the Manuscript.

If the above-referenced Manuscript was written by an Author who was at the time of authorship an employee of the U.S. Government, an assignment of the U.S. copyright cannot be made by the government employee author to the American Dental Association. Instead, the government employee author should read and sign the certification appearing below.

CERTIFICATION AS A WORK OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

The undersigned author certifies that s/he was a bona fide officer or employee of the U.S. Government at the time the Manuscript was prepared, and his/her contribution to the Manuscript was made as a part of his/her official duties as a federal government officer or employee. Because his/her contribution is thus deemed to be a “work of the United States Government” under the copyright laws of the United States (17 U.S.C.§105), U.S. copyright protection for his/her contribution is not available. Accordingly, s/he has no U.S. ownership rights in his/her contribution to transfer. In the interest of dissemination of the Manuscript in foreign countries, the Author hereby grants and transfers to the Publisher during the full term of any foreign copyrights in the Manuscript and all extensions thereof the full and exclusive rights comprised in any such copyrights to the extent authorized under the domestic laws of such foreign countries.
