

Be Bold(h)er: Workshop Stop-and-Jot Questions

By Tiffany Olson

Questions from the workshop

What is your current confidence level – high, medium, low? Is it different in your business vs. personal life?

What are your problem areas in communication? What can you work on first?

Who can you ask to be on your team? To serve as an accountability partner? To serve as a mentor?

Are you currently being called by your preferred name/title? If not, who do you need to have a tough conversation with?

What can be done in your office to ensure all voices are heard? What can you do about it?

Which leadership style do you utilize more often – Ice Queen or Good Mother? When is a time when you might have had better results if you used the other?

Questions to consider after the workshop

In regards to the Personal Inventory Survey,

- What stands out to you?
- What were you made aware of in this survey?
- What do you want to work on in order to improve your ability to communicate with confidence?

Who is the best leader you've ever had?

- What was it about him or her that made them an excellent leader?
- What traits did they have that you have already adopted?
- What are other traits worth emulating?
- What did it FEEL like in that office, classroom, home?
- How did her or his leadership style impact that?
